Please email Alyssa at acordova@glacierartmuseum.org for more information on sponsoring and tables.

Is there an age restriction for this event?

With alcohol service throughout the night and an open bar, this event is geared toward ages 21 and over.

Is there parking at the event?

Yes, there is free parking in the Wachholz Center Parking lot and adjacent FVCC parking lots

What should I wear?

This is a fun, semi-formal, art event! The theme for 2026 is “ Glacier Starry Night” after our beautiful Northwest Montana Skies and the iconic painting by Vincent Van Gogh. Go for an outfit inspired by the theme, Glacier, Montana, colors of the painting, or an art-inspired look of your own design! It’s up to you!

What form of payment will you accept for the art auction?

Cash or check are preferred. We will have a credit card option, but for faster checkout, cash or check is preferred.

Will there be an auctioneer at the event?

Yes, you are in for treat! We will have a live auctioneer, Montana-based Bo Carpenter, to auction off a curated selection of larger artworks. There will also be a silent auction from 5:00-6:30 pm

Who can bid on works in the live and silent auction?

Any guests who attend our event and check in will receive a bid sheet and be registered and can bid in our live and silent auction with their bid # and name. There is no buyers premium for this fundraiser auction! If you would like to arrange proxy bidding, please contact the museum at 406-755-5268
