Education Memberships are available to schools, youth groups, mental health groups, and other education entities. The term of membership is for one year and is renewable yearly at a rate of $100 per year. The membership year follows the school calendar of August – July.

The Benefits of Education Membership:

Education Memberships to the Glacier Art Museum support art, culture, and educational opportunities for both residents and visitors in our region. Museum memberships help sustain our role as guardian of historic art and artifacts of the permanent collection, as a visual arts center, and as an educational resource for the community. Other perks:

- No charge for tours and post tour art activities
- Unlimited number of class visits by your school/education group
- Free admission for teachers to preview exhibitions before their scheduled tour
- Special tours with exhibiting artists
- May arrange for tour time that begins before Museum opens to the public
- Lesson plans and in-class activities to supplement program experiences
- Art Education Trunks for classroom use - borrowers fee of $25 is waived
- Students invited to exhibit in Children's Art Show/New Artists: High School Student Exhibition
